Senate amendment makes the following changes to the 2nd edition.

Modifies the proposed changes to GS 93A-40(a) concerning real estate licensing requirements for time share salespeople. Now defines a time share salesperson to be a licensed real estate broker unless the salesperson meets the requirements for exemption from licensure under specified state law, or is an employee of the registered time share developer, and has their income reported on the IRS W2 form (previously did not include employees of registered time share developers in the licensure exemption).

Part II. Agriculture, Energy, Environment, and Natural Resources Regulation

Eliminates the proposed changes to GS 130A-309.10 and instead maintains the existing prohibition against disposing discarded computer equipment or discarded televisions in landfills or by incineration.
